TO OUR DAHLIA FRIENDS

Greetings:

In presenting my Catalogue for the year of 1924, I would call attention to the exceptionally choice list of varieties which it contained.

I have discarded many, retaining only the best of the older varieties, with the addition of the cream of recent introductions.

I take this opportunity to express my thanks to those who have favored me with their patronage in the past, and trust to have a continuance of their confidence and good will in the future.

I would like to add a few words of praise for the "Flower Grower," which it so justly merits. I think it is the best magazine of its kind that is published. It will be greatly enjoyed by all flower lovers.

Faithfully yours,

HATTIE G. GALLUP.

The Lord God Planted a Garden

The Lord God planted a garden
In the first white days of the World,
And set there an angel warden,
In a garment of light unfurled.

So near to the peace of Heaven,
The hawk might nest with the Wren;
For there, in the cool of the even,
God walked with the first of men.

And I dream that this garden closes,
With its shade and its sun-flecked sod,
And its Lilies and bowers of Roses
Were laid by the hand of God.

The kiss of the sun for pardon,
The song of the birds for mirth—
One is nearer God's heart in a garden
Than anywhere else on earth.

D. F. GURNEY.
